Wallace Vote in Wisconsin Significant

By DION HENDERSON

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, who said he would "shake the eye teeth" of both parties' leaders if he attracted more than 25,000 Wisconsin votes in his campaign against the civil rights bill, won 10 times that many in Tuesday's presidential primary.

But Wisconsin Gov. John W. Reynolds, who headed a favorite - son delegation as the personal choice of President Johnson, won all of the state's 46 Democratic National Convention votes. In the process, Reynolds topped the late President John F. Kennedy's record for the most votes ever won by a Democrat in the primary test.

The Southern segregationist's triumphant assertion that winning nearly one-fourth of the total vote cast in the traditionally progressive Badger state constituted a grass roots referendum that "will send a good message both to the Congress and to the two national parties" was immediately challenged by the other principals.

"It just goes to show what we've known all along," Reynolds said. "There are prejudiced people in the North as well as in the South."

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Green Bay, the Republican favorite son whose candidacy kept the GOP primary free of serious contenders for the presidential nomination, said, "I don't think this election proves anything at all about the civil rights bill."

With 3,349 of the state's 3,552 precincts reporting the vote was:

|----------|---------|
| Reynolds | 483,066 |
| Wallace | 246,275 |
| Byrnes | 287,632 |

In a state which has not produced a majority for a Democratic presidential nominee since the election of Harry S. Truman in 1948, the casting of more than 70 per cent of the vote in the Reynolds-Wallace fight showed that thousands of Republicans had taken advantage of the open primary to mark the other party's ballot.

Reynolds termed the crossover, which produced big Democratic totals in scores of solidly Republican areas, tremendous but added that it was "an old Wisconsin custom."

Byrnes said, "There is no more significance to the general crossover now than there was in 1960."

Four years ago, Kennedy won a majority of the delegates and a head start on the road to the White House when he whipped Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota in a similar primary, 476,024 to 366,753. Richard M. Nixon unopposed in 1960 as Byrnes was Tuesday, trailed with 339,383, but carried the state in the general election, 895,175 to 830,805.

Tuesday's vote total, however, was short of the 1960 record of 1.2 million.

You See Peggy Really Can't See

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—"I think I've got the jitters," Peggy Smith whispered to her parents as they sat in the darkened Phoenix Star Theater Tuesday.

It was just before Guy Taylor, conductor of the Phoenix Symphony, rapped his baton on the stand and announced to hundreds of Phoenix school children the symphony would play a composition by Miss Peggy Smith, a 6th grader.

Peggy leaned forward, straining toward the first sounds of "Peaceful Forest."

"Incredible," someone whispered. "Did you know that child puts the entire thing together in her little blonde head before it is transcribed to music?"

"Yes," another voice whispered. "I understand her mother or her teacher, that Dr. Jean London over there—they write it down for her on paper."

Peggy smiled as bright as the sun she will never see. She is blind.

Arkla Will Not Pass on Savings

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. executive said here Tuesday that the company plans to retain savings from the 1964 income tax cut rather than pass it along to customers.

W. D. Weir, executive vice president, told the Washington Society of Investment Analysts that if Arkla was "allowed to retain the tax reduction it would help the rate payers because it would have the effect of offsetting increased costs of gas."

"We know that the tax advantage should accrue to our customers, and it will do so through this method of handing it," Weir said.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—One of the main fixtures of Daniel Montoya's bathroom is missing—a huge bank containing between 8,000 and 10,000 pennies.

Montoya told police Tuesday a window in his Salt Lake City home was broken and the bank removed.

Singer Burl Ives Loses 75 Pounds on Rice Diet and Will Try to Loose That Much More

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Burl Ives, who used to be as wide as a forest, has slimmed down so much that now he can hide behind a single full-grown redwood tree.

"I've lost 75 pounds in the last four months, and I expect to drop another 75 pounds by the end of the year," said the big genial actor and folk singer.

After completing his latest film, a fantasy in which he plays a fat Arabian night's genie, Burl decided to peel off some of his 300-plus pounds.

He went to Duke University in North Carolina to try its famous rice diet treatment.

According to Ives, the fat melted from him magically.

"For 10 or 15 years I was on a high protein diet—and I kept gaining weight," he said.

"I can walk 10 miles a day now and never get tired. Before that I'd puff like a steam engine when I went a hundred yards."

"I used to have hot pipes"—his term for stomach upsets—"and colds before I went on this diet. Since then I haven't had hot pipes or a cold," Ives said.

"I used to have to put down a pound of steak before I went to make a recording. Now I can eat a few grains of boiled rice and sing like a bird."

Ives started plucking out tunes on a guitar as a 5-year-old farmboy. Becoming bored on a summer day during his junior year in college, he walked out of an English class on a sudden impulse to see the world. All he took along was his guitar and

Gov. Opens Mansion Door to Cude Children of Mena's Vaccination Controversy

By BILL SIMMONS

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Three farm children separated from their parents by a conflict between church and state awoke amid the wonders of the governor's mansion today.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus threw open the doors of the mansion to Wayne Cude, 12, and his sisters, Delta, 11, and Linda May, 8.

Faubus carried a suitcase containing the children's belongings into the mansion Tuesday afternoon after deputy sheriffs brought them from their farm home near Mena to Little Rock.

Fried chicken, mashed potatoes, creamed peas and chocolate pie were served for dinner, and later Faubus' wife, Alta, took the children on a tour of MacArthur Park, birthplace of the late General of the Army Douglas MacArthur.

Tuesday night the children of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Cude slept in the room where Texas Gov. John Connally, shot down by the assassin of President John F. Kennedy, slept on a visit to the mansion.

"They seemed to like it," Faubus said. "It's nice to have young 'uns around the place."

"They're making it fine," he said. "They're good kids. I think they'll be all right."

Faubus said the children saw their mother's picture in the paper Tuesday evening "and they recognized her, and talked about it a little bit."

"A kid gets lonesome when it gets dark and its time to go to bed," the governor said.

The Arkansas Supreme Court, in a decision Faubus said alarmed him, placed the children in the custody of the state Welfare Department Monday because the Cudes refused to have them vaccinated against smallpox.

The Cudes, who are affiliated with no organized church, live on a 65-acre farm at Mena. Cude also does odd jobs.

He says reading the Bible has taught him that faith in God is all that is needed to be healed, and use of medicines is evidence of lack of faith.

The school board has ruled that a smallpox vaccination is necessary to attend schools at Mena, and state law requires school attendance up to age 16.

Cude violated both laws, saying they infringed upon his freedom of religion.

He said he would not take the children back if they were vaccinated unless the state "umps them like a passle of dogs, then I'll have to care for them."

He said if they were vaccinated and he had to care for them, he would not return them

Airliner Lands in Swamp, 40 Are Injured

NEW YORK (AP)—A jet airliner carrying 136 passengers and a crew of nine bounced into a swamp and cracked open while trying to land at John F. Kennedy International Airport Tuesday night.

At least 40 persons were treated for injuries ranging from cuts, bruises and hysteria to dislocated and broken bones.

Police said 15 of the more seriously injured were taken to hospitals. One male passenger was expected within hours or days.

The Boeing 707, a Pan American World Airways flight from San Juan, PR, was landing in light fog when it bounced off the end of a runway and plowed into a marshy field.

There was no fire. Foam was spread to reduce that possibility.

The crew helped passengers into two life rafts, but some stepped from the plane directly into about two feet of mud and water.

"I believe it was the mud that saved us," said Mrs. Sidney Seidman of Lawrence, N.Y.

"There was no panic," said her husband. "The crew did an excellent job. They guided us out. After the plane hit, some people screamed, but that was all."

"It happened so fast," said Kelsey Cameron, 10, "that I had no time to be afraid."

"Maybe I was just a little," she added.

Kelsey's father, Robert Cameron of Oldwick, N.J., said he sensed the plane was "very definitely in trouble" as it made its approach. He said he had the impression the pilot was sharply maneuvering but that all his efforts for a normal landing were "fruitless."

A Pan American official declined to speculate whether the plane had overshot its landing or couldn't stop after landing because of the wet, slick runway.

The jet came to rest about 1,000 feet from the end of the runway and about 100 feet from Rockaway Boulevard in Queens.

A wire fence that surrounds the airport was cut by police at that point to allow passengers to reach dry ground.

The plane at first had been reported missing and all operations at the airport were suspended while emergency vehicles searched the huge airport.

Most passengers got out of the plane via escape hatches.

The fuselage snapped about 75 feet from the nose end, with the disjoined end bent at a 15-degree angle.

"What keeps us from joy is mostly ourselves. We have too many cobwebs in our minds."

"At this point in my life my feeling is to follow my instincts, to move as things happen rather than according to plan or to achieve any set goal."

"I have found that you have to move pretty much as life presents situations to you. I'm pretty happy-go-lucky. I'm not a worrier."

Racial Issue in Kansas City Barely Passes

By HUELL WARREN JR.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—In an amazing surge of votes but by slightly less than 1 per cent, Kansas City voters affirmed Tuesday an expansion of an ordinance forbidding racial discrimination in establishments which trade with the public.

The unofficial count was 45,476 to 43,733—a margin of 1,743 in a total vote of 89,209. This represented 42 per cent of the registered voters.

Only once before, in 1950 on a school bond issue, have so many turned out in a special election. Only 68,196 voted last December after a strident campaign which led to adoption of a municipal tax on earnings.

Robert P. Lyons, cochairman of the People for Public Accommodations, said, "I think it is significant that our citizens voted in greater numbers on a matter of human rights than on something that affected their pocketbooks."

The new ordinance prohibits racial discrimination in taverns, amusement places, recreational facilities, meeting halls, stores, transportation facilities, hospitals and other businesses open to the public.

Excluded were barber shops, beauty parlors, other places offering personal services, rooming and boarding houses and rented apartments.

Kansas City has had a public accommodations ordinance covering hotels, motels and restaurants since April 1962.

The City Council expanded it in September 1963, but it was forced to an election in a petition campaign sparked by the Tavern Owners Association and the Association for Freedom of Choice.

Negroes number about 30,000 of Kansas City's 475,000 population and 30,000 of its 209,000 registered voters. The wards where they live gave the new rules heavy margins.

The ordinance lost in 15 of the 24 wards, by 2-to-1 or more in the new suburbs Kansas City has annexed to the south, east and north.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Important civil rights bill test votes appeared today to be within reach at last, as the marathon Senate debate entered its 25th day.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen unveiled on Tuesday the general nature but few details of amendments he will offer to the bill's equal employment opportunity provisions. He said he would ask his GOP colleagues at a conference Thursday to support them.

Dirksen said they involved about 40 changes, many just "technical," and only eight or nine of major importance.

Declaring they are intended neither to "water down nor emasculate" the bill, Dirksen announced plans to call up some of the amendments next week for Senate consideration.

The move would mark the first real break in the often repetitive debate and would set the stage for test votes expected to give some clue to the bill's ultimate fate.

The petition was submitted by the City Negro Civic Club.

Dr. Arnold Henry, chairman of the school board here, released a statement Tuesday outlining the claims in the request.

They included parental concern for children riding a school bus daily to Morriston, feelings of parents and pupils that they are unwanted at Morriston, that Negro students

Praised for Physical Fitness Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three men who made major contributions to America's renewed drive for physical fitness got a personal "well done" today from President Johnson and awards from the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Scheduled to receive $1,000 special awards at a luncheon climaxing the first year of the Jaycees' physical fitness leadership awards program were:

Bill Bowerman, 52, of Eugene, Ore. University of Oregon track coach, who helped establish "jogging," a run not much faster than a walk, as an aid to physical fitness.

Frank J. Manley, 60, of Flint, Mich., who opened Flint school doors for night and weekend recreation activities that now attract 70,000 persons each week. He is assistant superintendent of schools in Flint.

Ralph Stanphill, 48, of Muskogee, Okla., physical educator, who directed and coordinated a pilot physical fitness program in the Muskogee school system used as a model by the President's Council for Physical Fitness.

These men, along with nine other regional winners, are being honored in a two-day visit to the nation's capital.

Before the awards luncheon, the winners were to tour the White House and visit with Johnson.

Polo Grounds Falls Down This Week

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Its short foul lines and obstructed views scorned by players and fans for years, New York's Polo Grounds comes tumbling to the ground this week—finally.

The city announced Tuesday that the long-planned demolition of the famous old sports arena will start Friday and with it will go a carload of memories.

Thomson's homer heard round the world... Merkle's boner at second base... Dempsey knocked out of the ring by Firpo... Mays' back-to-the-plate catch on Wertz... the feats of Mathewson, Ott and Hubbell... Ruth's 51 homers when the Yankees played there... all are part of the legend of Coogan's Bluff.

A low-rent housing project providing homes for 1,614 families will occupy the 17½ acres once called home by baseball's New York Giants and more recently, by the New York Mets.

Marked for demolition after the Giants moved to San Francisco in 1957, the old park got a temporary pardon from the bulldozers when the Mets were born in 1962. When Shea Stadium failed to be completed in time for the 1963 season, the Polo Grounds again escaped the wreckers.

With construction nearly finished on the new Flushing Meadows stadium, the aging sports arena appears doomed to keep its date with the workers.

One of the boasts of the Mets' new park is the absence of obstructed views and you can bet the builders planned that with Polo Grounds' spectators in mind. More often than not fans there found themselves peeking from behind girders and poles to watch the action.

But for all its shortcomings, the old park will be missed by many. Bleachers were a fraternity and one group of fans who gathered in deepest right field formed the Section Five Club, named after the section they sat in.

Cooler and drier air moving Thursday morning drop temperatures to the 30s with a chance

The U.S. Weather Bureau said today a high pressure front should leave the state Thursday, bringing a warming trend. No rain was predicted through the end of the week.

Overnight low temperatures ranged from 34 at Fayetteville to 45 at El Dorado. High readings Tuesday ranged from 53 at Little Rock to 61 at Pine Bluff. The extended forecast calls for rain totaling one half inch to one inch in showers Sunday or Monday of next week.

Continued From Page One ended last summer, but Congress passed the first compulsory arbitration law in the nation's history and created a special arbitration panel directed to solve two central issues in the dispute — whether firemen are needed on freight and yard engines and the makeup of train crews.

The panel said the railroads could eliminate gradually up to 90 per cent of firemen on diesel engines in freight and yard service, and set up procedures for local, binding arbitration on the question of makeup of train crews.

The unions appealed this award to the courts, but the railroads were upheld last March 4 unanimously by the Supreme Court.

At Reed March 28
Miss Darlene Braden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Braden of Hope, and William Tyler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Tyler of Patmos, were married at 7 p.m. Saturday, March 28 in the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church.

The Rev. Clyde Johnson performed the double-ring ceremony before an arch of greenery and twin candleabra holding burning tapers. Organ music was played by Mrs. Wade Warren, and Mrs. Jack Rogers, aunt of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a ballerina satin dress covered with lace that had a scalloped neck and hemline with long, tapering sleeves. Her veil of illusion was shoulder length. She also wore a drop pearl necklace, a gift of the groom, and carried a Bible topped with an orchid.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Glen Calhoun. She wore pale blue with small blue headpiece and circular veil and carried white carnations.

Glen Calhoun was best man for the bridegroom. Henry Rowe lighted the candles and served with John Whitten as usher.

Mrs. Braden, mother of the bride, chose a teal blue dress with white accessories, and Mrs. Tyler, mother of the bridegroom, wore blue lace with matching accessories. Each had a white carnation corsage.

The newlyweds greeted their guests in the foyer of the church following the ceremony. There, Miss Margaret Cash, dressed in pink with a white corsage, had charge of the bride's book.

At an informal reception in the home of the bride's parents punch and cake were served. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Hubert Yates and Jack, Springdale; Mrs. Jack Rogers and children, Minden, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Gaston, Camden; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Braden and children, Texarkana; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Sewell, Lewisville; Misses Cookie Anderson and Carolyn Gilbert, Fulton; Miss Janet Roberts, Magnolia; Miss Margaret Cash, Dallas.

For travel Mrs. Tyler wore a dress of white whipped cream crepe with blue dots and pinned corsage from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder. The couple left for Dallas, where they will be at home for the next few months.

The price is $1.00 per car and everyone is urged to bring their car to the school for a wash.

New York Is Choice in the American

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—As improbable as Fort Knox and almost as rich, the New York Yankees are so far superior to the rest of the American League that it is conceivable they could wrap up their fifth consecutive pennant in record time.

The big battle figures to be for second place. Four teams—Minnesota, Baltimore, Chicago and Detroit—will probably knock each other's brains out for the runner-up spot.

Of the others, only Cleveland appears to have a chance to sneak into the first division. The immediate future bodes ill for Boston, Los Angeles, Washington and Kansas City.

How can the other clubs stop the Yankees with a healthy Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris? Even without them for half a season, the Yankees ran off with the 1963 championship by 10 games.

The possible order of finish:

1. New York
2. Minnesota
3. Baltimore
4. Detroit
5. Chicago
6. Cleveland
7. Boston
8. Los Angeles
9. Washington
10. Kansas City

Yogi Berra, the new manager, claims the Yankees are stronger than last year. His argument is simple and direct.

"Our outfit is the best, our infield is the best and our catching is the best," he said. "And our pitching is better than it was last year."

The Yankee outfield trio of Mantle, Maris and Tommy Tresh, and the infield of Joe Pepitone, Bobby Richardson, Tony Kubek and Cleto Boyer rank tops in the league.

Catcher Elston Howard, the league's Most Valuable Player of 1963, is in a class by himself.

The Twins compare favorably with the Yankees in power. They have good, if not outstanding, pitching, but lack the tight defense so vital to a pennant winner. They were eighth in fielding last year and the switch at first from Vic Power to Bob Allison doesn't figure to eliminate that weakness.

Manager Hank Bauer has instilled some aggressiveness in the Baltimore line-up, which figures to be strengthened by newcomers Norm Siebern and Willie Kirkland. The pitching is strong and could rate with the best if Chuck Estrada's apparent recovery following an elbow operation is no myth.

Al Lopez, manager of the White Sox, maintains his personal optimism but Pete Ward, his slugging third baseman, continues to suffer from a chronic back ache, diagnosed as a pinched nerve.

Detroit has improved its infield and outfield by the acquisition of second baseman Jerry Lumpe and center fielder Don Demeter. Frank Lary, the ailing right-hander, has pitched encouragingly this spring but Manager Charlie Dressen has been unable to come up with a replacement for the departed

Ortiz Willing to Fight Sugar Ray

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP)—Carlos Ortiz said today that if he beats Kenny Lane in their lightweight title fight Saturday night he might defend his crown again this year, against featherweight champion Sugar Ramos.

"I might fight him in Los Angeles for $100,000; that's more than any other lightweight has ever earned for a single fight," said Ortiz, who makes no bones about fighting "only when the price is right."

But the 27-year-old Ortiz added that he only plans to defend his crown six or seven times, and a difficult victory over Lane might make him change his mind about a fifth title defense next year.

Ramos won the featherweight crown in March 1963 by knocking out Dave Moore, who died of his fight injuries.

Bill Daly, Ortiz's manager, said that matchmaker George Parnassus had suggested a Ramos fight in Los Angeles, "but we can't consider any offers until this fight is over, and then the line forms to the right."

Ortiz, with a 43-4 record, is a 2-1 favorite to beat Lane for the

Royals Win One From the Leading Celts

SALISBURY, N.C. (AP)—Sportscaster Chris Shenkel of the Columbia Broadcasting System and New York Times sports writer Arthur Daley were named by their colleagues as tops in their fields Tuesday night.

Shenkel and Daley were presented national awards at the annual dinner of the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati's one-two punch of Oscar Robertson and Jerry Lucas powered the Royals to a do-or-die fourth-game victory over the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Division playoff finals of the National Basketball Association Tuesday night.

Boston, winner of the first three in the best-of-seven set, was in position to take its eighth straight division title Tuesday night but ended up on the short end of the score, 192-93.

The series moves to Boston for the fifth game Thursday night.

"The pressure was on us and I told the team to just relax and play their normal game," said Royals' Coach Jack McMahon. "We only made some small adjustments on both offense and defense."

But those adjustments just about bottled up Boston's Bill Russell. The big center, who led the Celtics in the first three games, got only one field goal and seven free throws for nine points. He grabbed 24 rebounds, but Lucas pulled down 25 for the Royals.

In the NBA's Western Division finals, St. Louis and San Francisco tangle in a fourth game tonight at St. Louis. The Hawks lead that series 2-1.

McMahon credited Robertson's second half performance and Lucas' rebounding as the big factors in the Royals' win.

Robertson got 25 points in the last half and ended up with 33 to share scoring honors with the Celtics' Sam Jones.

Jack Twyman with 31 points also turned in a top performance.

Besides Law, Kansas City's Diego Segui and Detroit's Mickey Lolich turned in solid pitching performances.

Segui hurled shutout ball in his eight-inning stint, allowing only six hits, but the A's had to hold on once he left before nailing an 8-5 victory over the New York Mets. Lolich scattered nine hits, striking out 11, as he went the route in the Tigers' 4-1 victory over Houston.

Lee Thomas drove in his 29th run of the spring in the Los Angeles Angels' 3-2 triumph over Cleveland. Bob Allison singled home the winning run as Minnesota edged Washington 5-4 and Harry Bright's two-run double led the New York Yankees to a 4-3 decision over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Jim Maloney pitched eight innings and stroked three singles as Cincinnati beat Philadelphia 6-4, the Chicago White Sox took advantage of Norm Siebern's error and went on to defeat Baltimore 3-1 and the Chicago Cubs rode four unearned runs to a 4-2 victory over Boston.

Willie Gave No Alibi for Losing Fight

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—In an era of alibiing losers, Willie Pastrano appears as odd as a teen-ager driving 30 miles per hour on a speedway.

The light-heavyweight champion lost a non-title 10-rounder to Argentina's Gregorio Peralta last Sept. 20 and never once did he give out with the standard "We wuz robbed" excuse.

"He beat me, no question about it," said Pastrano again today. "He's an awkward-type fighter who surprised me with his style. I was in good shape physically but not up mentally. I guess I was too over-confident."

"I never heard of him. I thought he was just another one of those wild swingers from Argentina like Jorge Fernandez and Rocky Rivero. But he's cute and knows what he's doing. He shifts from a right-handed to left-handed stance and he had me baffled. This time I'll be ready for him."

Pastrano gets his return crack at the Argentine Friday in a 15-round title fight at the Municipal Auditorium. It will be televised nationally, ABC, 10 p.m. EST.

"I watched Peralta beat Wayne Thornton in those two television fights after he won from me and he fought the same way," said Willie. "He likes to take charge in a fight. I don't think he'll like it if it's the other way around. I think he'll get flustered."

"So that's what I'm going to do. I'm going to get inside and see if I can mess him up."

That would be a switch from fleet-footed Willie's usual dane-

Cardinals Are Picked to Win the National

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It has been 18 long, dry years since the St. Louis Cardinals won a National League pennant. The drought is over. Despite the retirement of Stan Musial, they will scramble home first this season in another typical cut-throat struggle.

The world champion Los Angeles Dodgers will be in it. So will San Francisco, Philadelphia and Milwaukee. Cincinnati could be a factor. Even Pittsburgh and Chicago are possibilities. Only Houston and the poor old New York Mets appear outclassed.

Nobody has repeated in this well-balanced league since Milwaukee in 1957-58. Four different teams have won in the last four years, starting with Pittsburgh in 1960. With the exception of the Colts and Mets, only the Cardinals, Phils and Cubs have failed to make the grade.

It is about time for another pennant for the Red Birds who haven't been in a World Series since 1946 when Enos Slaughter made his famous dash home from first base while Johnny Pesky of the Boston Sox hesitated.

Casper's the way it looks from here:

1. St. Louis

2. Los Angeles

3. San Francisco

4. Philadelphia

5. Milwaukee

6. Cincinnati

7. Chicago

8. Pittsburgh

9. Houston

10. New York

In the American League you start with New York and work down. In the National you open with New York on the bottom and work up. Not even the plush Shea Stadium can rescue the Mets from a third straight year in the cellar. Houston may be a bit better but not enough to catch the rest.

St. Louis has the league's all-star infield, a top young catcher in Tim McCarver and added pitching strength in Roger Craig to help Bob Gibson, Ernie Broglio and Curt Simmons. Much depends on a comeback by pitcher Ray Washburn and the ability of Charlie James and rookie Johnny Lewis or Carl Warwick to make the grade as regulars in the outfield with Curt Flood.

Pitching again must do the heavy work for the Dodgers, with Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale carrying the load. If they make it again it will be razor thin because Walter Alston must worry about catcher Johnny Roseboro's condition.

The Giants have been ripping the Cactus League competition to shreds while compiling gaudy 400 batting averages and behaving like men with a mission.

It remains to be seen if rookie Jim Hart and Jay Alou will make it and whether Bob Hendley and Bob Shaw will be the tonic the staff needs.

Actually, the club that has a long shot chance is Philadelphia. Gene Mauch has the pitching with the addition of Jim Bunning and enough hitting if his front line can remain intact. Richie Allen must continue his fine spring work.

Milwaukee will batter down fences and score runs by the carload. The question here is whether Bobby Bragan has enough pitching after he gets past Warren Spahn.

The big, straight batters—meaning Nicklaus and Palmer—can paste the ball to the top of the hill on the fly. And they get extra roll when they get home.

An invited field of about 90 players will tee off Thursday in pursuit of Nicklaus, the defending champion. The big, blonde Ohio Golden Bear is aiming to be the first player ever to repeat.

He was the youngest player ever to win the Masters last year. If he repeats at the age of 24 he will be the second youngest, too.

For the first time in many years, all the living past champions are on hand. Ralph Guldahl, the 1939 winner and one-time undisputed king of golf, is on hand for the first time since 1947.

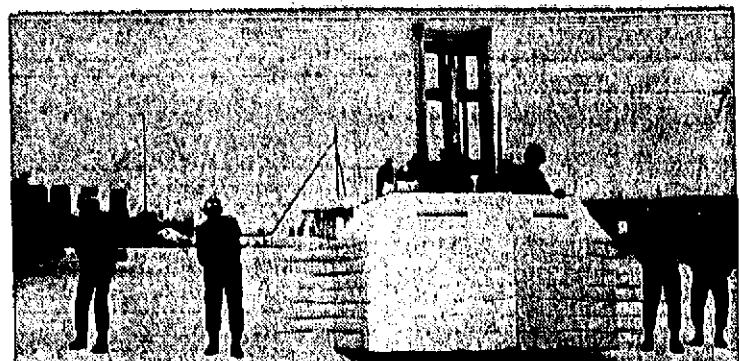

Old Sam Snead, 51, runner-up to Guldahl in 1939 and winner in 1949 and 1952, is rated a genuine chance. He shot a 69 in a Tuesday practice round.

Palmer had a 72, and admitted he hit some drives farther than any he ever hit before.

Nicklaus had a 71, as did Casper.

Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn., who is a possible title threat, also had a 69.

$500 Poorer But He Is Lot Happier

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

Sid Abel, Detroit's outspoken hockey coach, is $500 poorer and a lot happier today after the Red Wings' 7-2 "stay alive" victory over Chicago in Tuesday night's Stanley Cup final.

Abel called Udvary "gutless" for allowing a disputed Chicago goal in Sunday's game. The Red Wings' coach said the referee "blew the call and knew it."

Udvary presided—without incident—in the Toronto-Montreal scrap Tuesday night.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon had a long talk with President Chiang Kai-shek of Nationalist China this morning.

A qualified source said the pair exchanged views on world affairs, particularly the situation in Southeast Asia.

Even as he anxiously watched, clutched by dismay, Belita's bleak cry pulled his face around to see, toward Tucson, an answering signal swirling up in quick puffs. This was coming from Twin Buttes, south and west of San Xavier, the striping ground of Burks, hatchet man for banker Jones.

Burks' scouts had a line on him and were alerting Jones' lieutenants wherever they might be, calling his understrappers into the field.

"Git goin,'" he yelled, and started the mules into motion.
